

The map displays the geographical layout of Fulbari District, India. It is bordered by India to the north and east, and by Upazila Lalmonirhat Sadar, Upazila Rajarhat, and Upazila Kurigram Sadar to the south and west. The district is divided into five Upazilas: Naodanga, Kashipur, Bhagamon, Baravita, and Rajarhat. The Dharama River flows through the district, with several smaller rivers and streams also depicted. Major roads are shown in red, and other roads in blue. Various local landmarks, including bazar and hat, are marked with symbols. A scale bar at the bottom left indicates a distance of 2.5 Kilometers.

PREPARED BY : GIS UNIT
LOCAL GOVERNMENT ENGINEERING DEPARTMENT

